[Note: Appointees must be within 5 years of PhD upon appointment]

Current Address:

Extending New Narratives in the History of Philosophy Postdoctoral Fellows are funded by a Partnership Grant from the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada, and thus should demonstrate a benefit to Canada. Citizens of any country may be appointed at one of the four Canadian partner institutions (SFU, McGill, Guelph, Western). Only Canadian citizens or permanent residents may be appointed as postdoctoral fellows at non-Canadian partner institutions (Columbia, Duke, Pennsylvania, Nanterre, Lyon-3, Jyvaskyla, Monash, Sydney).

Select one:

Canadian citizen or permanent resident

Non-Canadian

In light of Covid-19 border closures and visa delays: To help us better anticipate the timelines that will be required for acquiring proper documentation to take up a postdoctoral fellowship, please let us know in which countries you are already authorized to work (i.e., have appropriate taxpayer ID [SIN, SSN, etc.], appropriate work permit, etc. You need not provide any specific details at this point.)

References: Please list the names of your three references.

Period of interest: Please describe the historical period on which your postdoctoral research will focus.

Consent to share application materials: On occasion, similar post-doctoral or other limited term appointments may arise at the ENN Partner Institutions. Please check the box below if you consent to the ENN Postdoctoral Search Committee sharing your application materials with Partner Institutions so that you may be considered for such similar positions.
